Table 1: Grading of the Significance of Cultural Heritage Resources Based on DMRB 2009¹

	Ass	sessment Considerations
Significance	Archaeological Remains	Historic Buildings	Historic Landscapes
Very High	 World Heritage Sites Assets inscribed as of universal importance Assets that can contribute substantial knowledge to international research 	 World Heritage Sites Structures of recognised international importance 	 World Heritage Sites Historic landscapes of international historic value
High	 Scheduled Monuments of national importance Undesignated structures of clear national importance Designated or undesignated assets that contribute to national research objectives 	 Scheduled Monuments which incorporate standing remains Grade I Listed Buildings Some Grade II* Listed Buildings that have exceptional historic or architectural qualities or associations not adequately reflected in their listing Some Conservation Areas containing very important buildings Undesignated assets of clear national importance 	 Designated or undesignated historic landscapes of outstanding interest Historic landscapes of demonstrable national value
Medium	Undesignated assets that contribute to regional research objectives	Grade II* and some Grade II Listed Buildings of regional importance	 Designated historic landscapes Undesignated historic landscapes showing quality justifying designation

 $^{^{1}}$ Highways Agency (2009) Design Manual for Roads and Bridges. Highways Agency.

	Scheduled Monuments compromised by poor preservation or poor survival of contextual associations	 Unlisted buildings containing exceptional qualities in their fabric or historical associations Conservation Areas containing buildings important to its historic character Historic townscapes with important historic integrity in their buildings or settings
Low	 Undesignated assets of local importance Assets compromised by very poor preservation or survival of contextual associations Assets with potential to contribute to local research objectives 	 Grade II Listed Buildings of local importance Undesignated structures of modest fabric or historical association Historic townscapes of limited integrity features within urban areas 	 Undesignated historic landscapes of local interest Historic landscapes whose value is limited by poor preservation or survival of contextual associations
Negligible	Assets with little or no surviving evidence	Buildings of no architectural or historical note	Landscapes with little or no historic interest
